

Port Madison Yacht Club Sailing School - 2010

June 21 – July 1, 9:00 am – 3:00 pm

Port Madison Yacht Club (PMYC) Sailing School registration time is here. Sailing school will be Monday, June 21 – Thursday, July 1. Fees are $125 (PMYC member) or $150 (non-member) per child.

Please make note of the following:

- ▶ Students must be 9 years old (as of June 21, 2010) or older.
- ▶ As part of tuition, a parent is required to work one day of camp for each student enrolled. Please, make other arrangements for non-sailing school siblings on your work day.
- ▶ EACH student must bring a boat to class.
Following are some general guidelines:
 - Optimist Pram - Beginners and intermediate sailors weighing less than 135 pounds, usually under 15 years old.
 - Laser Radial - Intermediate sailors weighing 135 pounds plus, usually 15 years old or older.
 - Laser: Advanced sailors weighing 160 pounds plus.
- ▶ There will be a boat inspection the week before sailing school. Date to be determined.
- ▶ If you need to borrow a boat to come to class, start lining it up early; they become quite scarce. You should check the bulletin board at the PMYC clubhouse for postings of boats for sale.
- ▶ Closed toe footwear and life jacket are required for safety reasons.

For more information please contact the Sailing School Director, Becky Mitchell at 780-5229.

For registration questions, please contact Susan Gace at 842-9364 or smgace@gmail.com or visit the PMYC website: www.portmadisonyc.org

We are a completely volunteer staffed sailing school. We depend on your support to make the class run smoothly and safely. Thank you.
